STATISTICAL SERVICES AVAILABLE FROM ABS

Range of Statistical Services

The Australian Bureau of Statistics (ABS) issues about 1 600 monthly, quarterly, annual and irregular publications each year covering almost every field of economic and social activity.

The ABS also provides data on microfiche, magnetic tape, computer printout, and electronically to meet the special needs of users.

It is not practicable for the ABS to publish all its available statistics. Some unpublished information may be made available on request for a variety of topics, including population, dwellings, building, imports and exports.

In cases where a considerable volume of information has to be specially extracted or where a regular service is required, a charge will be made.

Electronic Services

VIATel Key *656# for selected current economic, social and demographic statistics.

AUSSTATS Thousands of up to date time series are available on this ABS on line service through CSIRONET.

For further information phone the AUSSTATS Help Desk on (062) 52 6017.

TELESTATS This service provides foreign trade statistics tailored to users' requirements.

Further information is available on (062) 52 5404.

Information Service

The ABS has an information service in each of its offices (located in Canberra and the State capitals) to meet requests for information, advise on official statistics, and provide copies of statistical publications. These services may be obtained by contacting Information Services at any of the ABS offices on the telephone numbers listed below.

SYMBOLS AND OTHER FORMS OF USAGE

The following symbols, where shown in columns of figures or elsewhere in tables, mean:

- na not available
- nys not yet available
- nil or rounded to zero
- not applicable
- * subject to sampling variability too high for most practical uses
- p preliminary—figure or series subject to revision
- r figure or series revised since previous issue
- nei not elsewhere included
- necl not elsewhere classified
- np not available for publication but included in totals where applicable, unless otherwise indicated
- break in continuity of series (where drawn across a column between two consecutive figures)

Yearly periods shown as, e.g., 1985, refer to the year ended 31 December 1985, those shown as, e.g. 1985-86, refer to the year ended 30 June 1986

Values are shown in Australian dollars($) or cents(c)

Where figures have been rounded, discrepancies may occur between sums of the component items and totals

AUSTRALIAN PARLIAMENTS

The six States with their included Territories were federated under the name Commonwealth of Australia on 1 January 1901

The Legislature of Australia and of each State except Queensland is bicameral, consisting of an Upper and a Lower House. In Queensland the Upper House was abolished in 1922. In the Commonwealth Parliament the Upper House is known as the Senate and the Lower as the House of Representatives. In the bicameral States the Upper House is known as the Legislative Council and the Lower House, in New South Wales, Victoria, and Western Australia, as the Legislative Assembly (which is also the name of the Queensland Parliament) and, in South Australia and Tasmania, as the House of Assembly.

The members of the Parliaments of each State are elected by the people, the franchise extending to Australian citizens who are at least 18 years of age and possess certain residential qualifications. For the Commonwealth Parliament the qualifications for the franchise are identical for both Houses, extending to Australian citizens and British subjects who are on the Commonwealth roll and who are not less than 18 years of age.

The table opposite shows details on members of Australian Parliamentary Governments including their salaries and allowances and outlay on Parliamentary Government.

(a) The estimates are derived from the monthly population survey. The survey is based on a sample of dwellings and covers about two-thirds of one per cent of the population of Australia. It includes all persons aged 15 and over except members of the permanent defence forces, diplomatic personnel of overseas governments, overseas residents in Australia, and members of non-Australian defence forces (and their dependents) stationed in Australia. (b) The number unemployed expressed as a percentage of the labour force in the same group. (c) The labour force expressed as a percentage of the civilian population aged 15 and over in the same group. (d) Never married, separated, widowed and divorced. (e) Estimates for August 1986 are based on a revised definition of employment introduced in April 1986.
